Missionary to France Shares Truth about Healing

FRANCE - Author Marty Delmon reveals God's truth about healing for all of Christianity.

Nestled in the pages of this short book is the power to get you healed. Release these principles in your life and never again will you have to worry about being sick or having chronic illnesses. Jesus Christ paid the price. There's no need for you to pay it again. Author Marty Delmon illustrates how it is that healing belongs to us and how we can obtain this healing which is our possession.

The Church, the Body of Christ, has long believed error in regards to healing. They've believed lies that say 'God uses sickness for His glory' or 'God wants me sick so He can teach me something' or 'We must all suffer for Christ, that's why we're sick.' Statements such as these are not even worthy of analysis. Look at them again. Do any of them even make sense? No! They are all biblically incorrect.

Dare to believe the truth! When Jesus died He exchanged His life for ours. He paid for our sins. He paid for our sicknesses. He paid for our poverty. Isaiah 53:4,5. It is only the enemy of God, satan, who would have you believe that Jesus did not do this. He is the father of lies, so don't listen to him. Believe the Word of God instead. Therein rests the only truth, if you are brave enough to believe it.
