Begin the New Year

*B*egin the new year
with love in your heart,
and the year will be better
right from the start.
Resolve to yourself
to live each day
treating others
in a loving way.

Begin the new year
with a smile on your face, as you spread your love
in every place.
Throughout the year
as you let your joy show,
lives will be brighter
wherever you go.

*Begin the new year,
as you pass through each season,
with hope deep within that God is the reason that love and joy
are flowing to you and will continue all the year through.*

March Winds

*W*hen March winds blow
I just seem to know The approach of spring is drawing near,
And a great appeal
Is what I can feel
For this almost spring time of the year.

When March comes around
I see in the ground
Signs of bulbs beginning to grow,
And soon each tree
Will have buds to see
As branches wave while the March winds blow.
